

Mothers' Club Meeting

Wednesday April 16th – 7:00 PM

Mothers' Club is proud to present

Lela Jahn

“Financial Planning for the various Life Stages”

Lela Jahn is a Registered Investment Advisor, Certified Financial Planner and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. She is Past President of the San Francisco Chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners, and co-founder of Women Across Generations, a not-for-profit organization working with teen women. In recognition of her years of working to improve the status of women around the world, Lela was recipient of the prestigious “Gillian Rudd Vanguard Award” in 1997. And in recognition of her leadership role in the Bay Area business community, Lela was chosen the “Financial Woman of the Year” in 2000. A frequent speaker on women’s attitude toward money, Lela has been interviewed on both local and network broadcast programs and has been a frequent guest on ABC TV’s “Good Morning America” and CNN.
